

MULTIPLAN ADDS EXECUTIVE TO LEAD NETWORK DEVELOPMENT IN THE WISCONSIN MARKET

New York, NY, – MultiPlan, Inc., the nation’s oldest and largest independent PPO network, and parent company of HealthEOS by MultiPlan, Wisconsin’s largest independent primary PPO network, welcomes Mark Kapler as Senior PPO Network Development Executive to its Network Development team.

Mr. Kapler, who joined MultiPlan on February 18, 2008, manages contract activity for physicians, hospitals and medical groups on behalf of HealthEOS, MultiPlan and PHCS. He is based in the company’s Brookfield, Wisconsin office.

“We’re thrilled to welcome Mark to MultiPlan’s Network Development team,” said Kate Mathison, Senior Vice President, Network Development. “His combination of experience from the hospital and health insurance arenas will be a valuable asset to our contracting and negotiation activities.”

Mr. Kapler brings to MultiPlan his proven success in both medical network and provider practice management along with considerable experience in operational, administrative and leadership capacities. His skills in contract administration, strategy development, and reimbursement methodologies and analytics will help further MultiPlan’s presence in the Wisconsin area. Before joining MultiPlan Mr. Kapler held positions at Wellmark Blue Cross Blue Shield in Sioux Falls, South Dakota and Des Moines, Iowa.
