

MultiPlan Completes All-Stock Acquisition of Viant

Creates Nation's Most Comprehensive Provider of Healthcare Cost Management Services

New York, NY, March 15, 2010 - MultiPlan, Inc. announced today that it has acquired Viant, Inc., bringing together the considerable expertise and complementary solutions of both companies to produce what MultiPlan believes will be the industry's most comprehensive provider of healthcare cost management services.

"The timing couldn't be better for Viant to join the MultiPlan family, as containment of healthcare costs has become the nation's imperative," said Mark Tabak, MultiPlan's Chief Executive Officer. "Together, we plan to more effectively leverage our companies' combined expertise and technology to improve efficiencies and patient flow for providers, driving significant savings for healthcare consumers and payers."

Founded in 1980, MultiPlan is a provider of PPO network and related transaction-based solutions that reduce the per-unit costs of healthcare claims. MultiPlan contracts directly with over 5,000 hospitals, 115,000 ancillary care facilities and 625,000 practitioners who participate in the company's national primary and complementary PPO networks.

Established in 1990 as Preferred Payment Systems, Inc., Viant today offers PPO networks, network management, pre-payment and post-payment services to commercial and government clients. Viant's networks represent approximately 5,400 hospitals, 95,000 ancillary facilities and 600,000 practitioners.

Added Tabak, "With our combined product lines, MultiPlan has a solid foundation from which to develop new solutions as healthcare reforms take shape. We look forward to working with our new colleagues at Viant to meet the needs of this changing marketplace."

Together, MultiPlan and Viant offer healthcare payers an end-to-end solution for managing healthcare unit costs on a pre- and post-payment basis.
